

Architect. Professor hired by the University of Seville. Guest lecturer professor in Andalusian International University. Owner and CEO of "Santana y Vicente Associated Architects". Member of the Research Group HUM-632 "Project, Progress, Architecture". Member of the Expert Network Heritage Project in Campus of International Excellence. Honorary Assistant and Diplom of Advanced Studies at the Department of Architectural Design at School of Architecture of Seville. Supported of Faculty of Architecture at Czech Technical University in Prague. Master Erasmus Mundus Urban Studies in Mediterranean Regions. His research and publications focus on developing working methods in Waterfronts of port cities.