

Graduated from the Orientale Institute in Political Science, specialised in Eastern Europe. In January 1983, after being ranked first in a public competition, she was hired by the then Consorzio Autonomo del Porto di Napoli, now Port System Authority of the Central Tyrrhenian Sea, where she still works today. Since the beginning, she has always worked closely with the Presidency and the General Management. She firstly supported the communication responsible, then she coordinated the promotion activities. Since 2003, she has been in charge of the Studies and Statistics Office. She has a good knowledge of English and Russian.