

Architect and urban planner. Founder and President (2017-2020) of RETE. Founder and Co-Director (2001-2017) of Portus, RETE's magazine and its journal Portusplus. Former lecturer in Urban Planning at the Faculty of Architecture of the IUAV University of Venice. Former director of the International Centre "Città d'Acqua" in Venice. Curator for the Venice Biennale of Architecture of the section dedicated to the urban redevelopment of the waterfronts (Floating Pavilion in the Arsenal of Venice, 2004) and of the exhibitions "Città-Porto" in Palermo (Italy, 2006). Curator for the Biennial of Architecture of Buenos Aires of several exhibitions and member of the International Committee of Advisors of the same Biennale. Scientific Director of the Thematic Plaza "Cities of Water" at the International Expo Zaragoza, 2008. Author of numerous books, essays and articles on the theme of the requalification of waterfronts and the port-city relationship. He has given lectures and participated in seminars and congresses in cities in many countries.