

Graduated in Foreign Languages and Literatures, since 2010 she has been working in the administration of the Institute for Research on Innovation and Services for Development (IRISS) of the National Research Council (CNR) of Italy where she assists the Directorate in planning, monitoring, evaluation and promotion of research activities of the Institute. Expert in communication and social media, she has coordinated many international conferences and events. She is responsible for dissemination, exploitation and communication activities of the IRISS CNR. Since January 2021, she has been in charge of the Administrative and Organisational Secretariat of RETE as well as of the communication activities of the Association.