

She has a Diploma in European Legal Studies from the University of Kent at Canterbury and graduated in Law at the Alma Mater Studiorum–University of Bologna with a dissertation in Shipping Law. Since then, she has worked in Port-related activities. From 2000 to 2007 she worked, as a legal consultant, in the company that was General Contractor and Engineering consultant to Evergreen Marine Corp. in Taranto, where they established their Terminal Container. Since 2007, she's been working for the Port Network Authority of the Southern Adriatic Sea (former Port of Brindisi) in charge of the tender and procurement office and also promoting the Port of Brindisi in the cruise market. Elected in 2017 in the Board of Directors of MedCruise–The Association of Mediterranean Cruise Ports, she seats as Vice President. Laura's task on the BoD is related to Ports, Cities and Destinations.