

In the firm "P+R. Arquitectura y Urbanismo" he directs studies and plans of urban development, architectural projects and management of real estate projects. Professor and Researcher in the Division of Sciences and Arts for Design (CYAD), Autonomous Metropolitan University, Azcapotzalco Unit. As a teacher he has directed Terminal Projects and Thesis in topics related to urban renewal and architecture. He coordinates the research programs "Morphogenesis and urban transformations" and "Trends in International Urbanism". In 2017 he received the prize in Sciences and Arts for Design, awarded by the UAM for the research "Metropolis Mexico. Formation and Consolidation". He has been a visiting professor at the postgraduate level at universities of México, Germany, and Colombia. Lecturer in seminars and colloquia. Author of articles and essays published in international journals. Coordinator of the Seminar on International Urbanism and the URBANINT Network of International Experts. He has the recognition as a Level I of the Researchers National System.