

Urban Planner Architect (Valparaíso University), Master's in Urban Planning Project Management (Barcelona University), specialized in Ports and Waterfronts, consultant with 20 years of experience in infrastructure, marine and coastal engineering for urban and industrial development, public and private investments, master planning, and urban design. Has managed complex port and coastal projects in Chile, Middle East and China. Has also taught at universities, given lectures and thematic training courses, published articles and collaborates for RETE Latam as Chile Coordinator, managing agreements and thematic exchanges.