

Degree in Architecture at the Technical School of Architecture in Madrid (1982), with a Degree in Investigating Sufficiency (2003). Professional office in Madrid and Malaga until 1999. From 2000 he has been Head of Urban Planning Department at the Algeciras Bay Port Authority (APBA). He is responsible for drafting and development of projects and works undertaken in the context of the port and city-port relationships. He has taken part in previous Governing Boards of RETE. At present he is a member of the Scientific Committee of the Association.