

Rui Filipe da Silva Pereira da Terra is from the town of Horta, Faial Island (Açores), where he was born in 1978. Since June 2021, he has been Chairman of the Board of Directors of the public company Portos dos Açores, S.A., the port authority of the Portuguese archipelago. His entire training and professional career was developed in the naval military area, where he is a Senior Officer. He was Captain of the Port of Cascais and Local Commander of the Cascais Maritime Police, among other functions. In the NATO area, he worked in the first NATO Centre of Excellence built in Portugal, the Maritime Geospatial, Meteorological & Oceanographic Centre of Excellence (MGEOMETOC COE), as Experimentation & Exercises Staff Officer, and during his naval career, he was awarded several collective and individual prizes and recognitions.